The Volunteer Services Department is recruiting students for its 1981 Summer Student Volunteer Program.

The program lasts nine weeks, from June 29 to August 30, and provides high school and college students exposure and practical experience in a health science setting. Students will have the opportunity to participate in various hospitals and clinics units and assist in direct patient services.

To be eligible, students must be 16 years of age or older and able to make a commitment to volunteer 12 hours per week on a regularly scheduled basis for the duration of the program. They must also be able to attend any necessary prerequisite orientation and training sessions.

Interested students should contact the Volunteer Services Department, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, at 666-1196.

Second Annual Baby Reunion

More than 400 children, all born with problems that necessitated life-saving measures in the UCSF Intensive Care Nursery (ICN) in Moffitt Hospital, are expected to attend the second annual Parent Support Group reunion on Saturday, May 30, in UCSF's Saunders Court. Fifty physicians and ICN staff who have cared for them will be present at the reunion, which will feature games and prizes, clowns, mimes, puppet show, helium balloons, jugglers, face painting and a piano player.

A four-part workshop directed at helping parents ease the transition from childhood to the teenage years will be held on Mondays, June 15, 22, 29 and July 6, from 4:30 to 6 p.m. at the UCSF Youth Clinic, 400 Parnassus Avenue. The enrollment fee is $25 per person or $35 per couple. The workshop is open to parents of teens 11 to 13 years of age.

Workshop discussion will focus on bodily changes in early adolescence, sexuality, intellectual and emotional development, changes in relation to the family and normal problems during these years. Advance registration is required. Interested parents should call 666-2184 for further information.

Blood Donation Day May 18

The neighborhood is invited to participate in the next UCSF Blood Donation Day, Monday, May 18, in the Nursing Mezzanine (enter through Medical Sciences lobby, 513 Parnassus Avenue), 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.; or Millberry Union lounge, 500 Parnassus Avenue, 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Appointments may be made in advance by calling 666-4013.

This is the second of three drives held annually. The first, held in February, netted 264 pints, a 5.5 percent increase over the previous drive.

The Associated Students of UCSF will sponsor a prize of a Sunday brunch for two at the Alta Mira Hotel, Sausalito. To be eligible, donors must drop their donation receipts in a box at either blood donation site.

Workshop for Parents Of Young Teens

The neighborhood is invited to attend special health-related lectures during National Hospital Week at UCSF, May 11 to 15.

The lectures are free, held at noon in 302 Health Sciences West (unless otherwise noted) and include: "Rape Prevention" (Mon.), "Environmental Health & Safety" (Tues.), "Backaches & Headaches: How to Relieve Them" (Wed.) and "Health Hazard Appraisal & In-terventions" (Thurs.) in Room 326, Ammulatory Care Building.

In addition, a booth will be set up in the Medical Sciences lobby, 513 Parnassus Avenue, to distribute information on rape prevention, the cancer risk analysis service and stress management. For further information contact Linda Civitello, 666-3206.

Nursing Open House May 2

UCSF's School of Nursing and the Hospitals and Clinics Nursing Services are holding an informational open house on nursing education and career opportunities on Saturday, May 2, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the lobby of the School of Nursing (enter through the Medical Sciences lobby, 513 Parnassus Avenue).

"Careers and Education: You Can Do Both at UCSF" is directed toward men and women in nursing who are interested in furthering their careers. One of the goals of the open house is to recruit prospective minorities in nursing to work and attend school at UCSF.

The full day's program includes educational forums, hospital tours and exhibits.

Chauncey Leake Day Tuesday June 2

A day for planting flowers and greenery on campus will be held on Tuesday, June 2, in memory of Chauncey Leake, the distinguished scientist and teacher who died in 1978 after devoting a half century of service to UCSF.

Ceremonies will include dedication of the first UCSF boundary sign, a new vegetable garden for the UCSF Child Care/Study Center and the planting of several flowers and plants on campus.

At information tables on campus people will be able to sign up for the day's activities, and Leake Day programs will be distributed. Information on future projects of the Campus Beautification Committee also will be available. Leake Day is part of UCSF's ongoing beautification plan, which includes the recent planting of trees on the south side of Parnassus on the western end of the campus and renovation and landscaping at the Laguna Honda School.

Famous Writers Coming

Distinguished writers Tillie Olsen, Al Young, Bienvenido Santos and Thomas Sanchez will read from their works on successive Wednesday evenings, May 6 to 27, 7 to 9:30 p.m., in the Millberry Union lounge, 500 Parnassus Avenue. Each author's reading will be followed by a discussion of the work by a panel of Bay Area humanists and UCSF health scientists.

A book-signing will be held in the Millberry Union bookstore from noon to 1 p.m., preceding each program. Works by the authors will be available at the bookstore for purchase several weeks before each reading.

This series, "Light from Many Windows," is sponsored by Continuing Education in Health Sciences and is partially supported by a grant from the California Council for the Humanities. For registration information and tickets at $5 each, call 666-2894.

MU Summer Programs

Millberry Union has just announced summer programs for children and adults.

Registration for children's programs starts Tuesday, June 9. Classes include jazz/ballet, creative movement, guitar, erythmics, gymnastics, judo and swimming. Registration for adult programs starts Tuesday, June 30. Classes include arts, dance, exercise, Eastern disciplines, massage, sports, among many others. Register at Millberry Union Central Desk, 500 Parnassus Avenue. For further information and a free brochure call 666-1800.

In addition, a limited number of Millberry Union Community Athletic Privilege cards are available at $15 each, starting Saturday, June 20, at noon. Cards are valid from date of purchase through September 30. Holders can use most of the athletic facilities, including swimming pool, saunas, weight and exercise rooms and the gymnasium. A $1 fee also is charged for each visit. Visit the Millberry Union Central Desk or call 666-2035 for further information.

Tiffany Exhibit May 1

The Auxiliary of UCSF Hospitals and Clinics is presenting "A Viewing of the Tiffany Collection," Friday, May 1, at the de Young Museum from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The exhibit is the largest collection of its kind in the world and includes more than 300 objects of Tiffany stained glass: lamps, jewelry and other art works. Wine, cheese and musical entertainment will be provided.

All proceeds will aid the UCSF's hospitals and clinics patients. Tickets are $15 each. For further information contact Eileen Puppo, Auxiliary Office, 666-4906, between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

In addition, the Auxiliary now has a donation box in the lobby of Medical Sciences for good quality usable items for the "Bear-ly New" thrift shop. The shop, which is located at 1909 Fillmore Street, also is in need of volunteer help. Persons interested should contact Estelle Blair, shop manager, at 921-2789 during the shop hours, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Center on Deafness Open House May 5

UCSF's Center on Deafness is having an open house on Tuesday, May 5, coinciding with "Deaf Awareness Week" in the Bay Area. There will be informal tours of the center, 10 to 11 a.m., a formal presentation on services and programs offered by the center, 11 a.m. to noon, and tours until 1 p.m. Coffee and donuts will be available. Everyone is welcome to attend. The Center on Deafness is located at 1474-5th Ave. (up one flight of stairs and enter on the right).
